Mission

Several Sources Shelters operates a number of social programs in the spirit of compassion and spiritual support, including four shelters for pregnant women and their children, and a 24 hour national pregnancy hotline. Several Sources also operates a day time shelter for homeless women in Newark, NJ called Ladies Rest. Furthermore, Several Sources has developed an interactive CD-ROM called the Choice Game. The purpose of the game is to teach the values of life, chastity, and sound decision making to youth so that they can see the consequences of their future actions. Accordingly, Several Sources is very active with the internet and maintains numerous websites that feature the work of the organization, allowing it to expand counseling and educational efforts throughout the United States.

Results Information

LOOKING FOR RESULTS DATA?

Charity Navigator is collaborating with GuideStar, Classy, and GlobalGiving, to display impact-related information for rated nonprofits. However, not all rated nonprofits have provided results information yet. Each of these partners has supplied Charity Navigator with the results information they receive directly from nonprofits. Submissions must be made on our partner's websites and we plan to update the display of this information regularly.
